

THINKING ABOUT BECOMING A CAI-NJ AMBASSADOR?

WHAT'S THE ROLE OF A CAI-NJ AMBASSADOR?

The primary mission of the CAI-NJ Ambassador Program is to familiarize and acclimate new and existing members to CAI-NJ, as well as, the overall benefits of being a member. As the face of the organization, this energetic group helps maintain contact with other CAI-NJ members while promoting our organization and purpose.

WHY SHOULD YOU BECOME ONE?

CAI-NJ Ambassadors can develop more new business contacts and leads at various networking events throughout the year. They can help build and grow our chapter membership. They can create a strong network with fellow members of CAI-NJ.

HOW DO AMBASSADORS BENEFIT CAI-NJ?

Ambassadors integrate members into CAI-NJ's programs and services by meeting and greeting members at networking events and educational programs throughout the year. They help with membership retention through personal contact and keeping new members as informed and involved as possible. They promote attendance and participation at CAI-NJ events and educational programs, and help publicize CAI-NJ's events and educational programs.

REQUIREMENTS TO BE AN AMBASSADOR

They must be a current CAI-NJ member in good standing and currently serving on another CAI-NJ Committee. They must attend at least 3 of 4 Ambassador meetings a year at the CAI-NJ office. They must attend 4 CAI-NJ networking events a year as a CAI-NJ Ambassador. They must arrive at the networking event at least 30 minutes prior to registration time at the scheduled area. They must welcome and network with new members at the events. They must encourage members to attend additional events and become more involved within CAI-NJ.

HOW DO I BECOME AN AMBASSADOR?
